

2016 Finalists – Support of Amateur Sport

Bankstown Sports Club Breathing New Life into Local Sports Clubs

Bankstown Sports Club has been named as a finalist in recognition of the instrumental role they have played in re-establishing Bankstown Sports AFL Club and Bankstown Sports Swimming Club through cash and in-kind donations.

Blacktown Workers Club Group Going for Gold

Blacktown Workers Club has been recognised for its extensive support of over 30 sporting bodies in the North West Sydney region. In 2015 the Club supported all of its sporting bodies with a total amount of $810,771.92 for jerseys, equipment, training groups, coaching clinics for all ages, room hires and for any support they needed.

Moorebank Sports Club Sporties Always Supporting Amateur Sport

Moorebank Sports Club has been recognised for its extensive support of sport in the community, with the Club supporting 2200 registered players across five sporting codes utilising 15 different ovals, courts and fields. In addition, Sporties facilitated an International Football Academy and targeted sports program for Holsworthy High.

NSW Harness Racing Club We Love to Trot!

The NSW Harness Racing Club has been named a finalist for its commitment to ensuring the longevity of their sport with a state Mini Trotters initiative. The program allows mini trot drivers aged between 5-16 years to use the track, racing stables, calling tower, and provided financial assistance for the purchase of sashes, rugs, and racing equipment.

West's Ashfield Leagues Club Sports of West's World

West's Ashfield Leagues Club has been nominated for its widespread support of sport in the community across 28 sporting organisations, representing 9000 registered members and incorporating 560 teams. In addition, the Club holds the annual "Magpie Awards" which recognise and reward community sporting organisations and the outstanding achievements of their people.

West's Illawarra Enhancing and Fostering Healthy Lifestyles for the Illawarra

West's Illawarra has been recognised for the nutritional knowledge, increased confidence and improved fitness skills it provided students living with a disability through the Fitness 4 All Program. They are also a finalist for their work in fostering healthy lifestyles for local people including through the support of local sporting bodies and school sports programs.